

Grammar True - False Exercise

by TeacherApp English

1. The Past form of the Verb To be is only "Was".

- True
- False

2. "Should" and "Ought to" have very different meanings.

- True
- False

3. We use pronouns like "Who" or "Whose" when we refer to a thing.

- True
- False

4. The main verb is always in the Past Participle form when we use the Passive Voice.

- True
- False

5. We use quotation marks in Reported Speech.

- True
- False

6. To talk about Male Nouns, we use the Pronoun "It".

- True
- False

7. We can also use Would in Conditional sentences.

- True
- False

8. "And" is considered a Conditional Connector.

- True
- False

9. "Too" can be considered an Adverb of Manner.

- True
- False

10. The article "An" is used when the following word begins with a vowel.

- True
- False

11. "That" and "Those" are considered Quantitative Adjectives.

- True
- False

12. Sometimes, you can form the Comparative form of Adjectives with two syllables, either by adding -er or by preceding the adjective with more.

- True
- False

13. When we use Reported Speech, we use backshift.

- True
- False

14. "Behind" can be considered an Adverb of Place.

- True
- False

15. Adverbs can't be used to modify complete sentences.

- True
- False

Correct Answers

1. False
2. False
3. False
4. True
5. False
6. False
7. True
8. False
9. False
10. True
11. False
12. True
13. True
14. True
15. False