

Intonation Exercise

by TeacherApp English

1. Falling intonation indicates...

- how the voice rises.
- how the voice falls.
- the stressed syllables.

2. Fall-rise intonation describes how the voice falls at the end of the sentence

- True
- False

3. Which tone would you use to ask “where are you”?

- Rising intonation
- Falling intonation
- Fall-rise intonation

4. Which tone would you use to ask for more tea politely?

- Rising intonation
- Falling intonation
- Fall-rise intonation

5. If you are looking for a Yes/No answer, which tone would you use?

- Rising intonation
- Falling intonation
- Fall-rise intonation

6. When we want to sound determined, we use...

- rising intonation
- falling intonation
- fall- rise intonation

7. If we pronounce the word “sure” in a rising intonation, we are most likely expressing...

- a statement
- a question
- giving an answer

8. Choose the correct intonation, “He lives in Germany” (you are sure about that)

- Rising
- Falling
- Fall-rise

9. Could you please open the window ↘ ↗ ?

- Rising intonation
- Falling intonation
- Fall-rise intonation

10. When we use falling intonation, the voice falls on the final stressed syllable.

- True
- False

Correct Answers on final page.

Correct Answers

1. how the voice falls.
2. False
3. Falling intonation
4. Fall-rise intonation
5. Rising intonation
6. falling intonation
7. a question
8. Falling
9. Fall-rise intonation
10. True